

Chemical designation /
Synonyms*Product descriptionNaHCO<sub>3</sub>

E500 (ii)

Natron

Sodium bicarbonate

Baking soda

Bullrich salt

Sodium hydrogen carbonate is a colorless or white sodium salt of carbonic acid. It occurs naturally and can be obtained by bringing about a chemical reaction.

Sodium hydrogen carbonate can be used as an acidity regulator and leavening agent.

Sodium hydrogen carbonate is used in the areas of foods, food supplements and pharmaceuticals.

---