Chemical designation / Synonyms	Product description
	Sodium citrate is a colorless or white salt of citric acid and can be obtained through the neutralization of a sodium hydroxide solution with citric acid. Sodium citrate is odorless and easily soluble in water.
$C_6H_5Na_3O_7$
E 331 (iii) Trisodium citrate	Sodium citrate may be used, amongst other things, as a sequestrant, emulsion stabilizer and acidity regulator.
	Sodium citrate is used in the areas of foods, food supplements and pharmaceuticals.